Experience

After graduating from the University of Florida, David Mallen has practiced his entire career in Orlando. Dave has a broad base of experience including insurance defense, medical malpractice defense, workers compensation, social security, and family law. For nearly 16 years David Mallen has worked hard serving the people of our community as an attorney and a volunteer.

Ethics

David not only knows the law but has the integrity and ethics that we need in our Circuit Judge. David Mallen understands that we need a judge on the bench who will follow the law, not legislate from the bench. As a Circuit Judge David will use common sense, integrity and the law to guide his decisions. David is the choice we can trust as our next Circuit Judge.
